

REVISED MARCH 8, 2010

SIR JAMES & LADY GALWAY PRESENT

THE 21ST GALWAY INTERNATIONAL FLUTE MASTERCLASS
JULY 24TH – AUGUST 1ST 2010 IN WEGGIS, SWITZERLAND

Sir James and Lady Jeanne Galway invite you to take part in their annual International Flute Masterclass in the beautiful lakeside town of Weggis, Switzerland.

Your chance to participate in 7 Days with 'The Master of the Flute' will include daily warm-ups and personal masterclasses focusing on all aspects of flute playing with emphasis on studies, recital and concerto repertoire. In addition, Sir James will conduct a daily flute choir. There will also be several flute exhibitors as well as on-site repairs available and chances to win special prizes including exclusively made flute head joints by Wm. S. Haynes, JR Lafin and Nagahara Flutes.

Alongside Sir James' classes, Lady Galway holds open classes each afternoon. The focus is on Auditors, who will have a chance to perform and be coached by Lady Galway with a pianist.

Evenings will be filled with concerts by renowned international flutists. This year's guest artists will include:

Bulent Evcil – Solo Flutist - Istanbul Symphony
Davide Formisano – Solo Flutist - Teatro alla Scala
Andrea Griminelli – International Solo Flutist
Stefan Hoskulddson – Solo Flutist - New York Metropolitan Opera
Nicola Mazzanti – Solo Piccolo - Maggio Musicale Fiorentino
Andrea Oliva – Solo Flutists – Symphonic Orchestra of S. Cecilia, Rome
Irina Stachinskaya – Solo Flutist Moscow Symphony
Winner of 2010 "Rising Star Series" - Solo Debut
Raffaele Trevisani – International Solo Flutist
Matthias Ziegler – International Solo Flutist

New to this year's program, Wednesday afternoon will be devoted to a variety of workshops open to all by our visiting guest artists in their area of expertise.

Once again, The Masterclass will be held at the Stella Matutina in Hertenstein near Weggis, complete with accommodation and meals. For more information about the Stella Matutina please visit www.stellamatutina-bildungshaus.ch
