

THE JAMES GALWAY FLUTE FESTIVAL 2012 IN WEGGIS, SWITZERLAND, JULY 20TH – 28TH

MASTERCLASSES, WORKSHOPS, GUEST ARTISTS EVENING CONCERTS, FLUTE CHOIR, FLUTE EXHIBITORS & MORE

THE MASTERCLASS

Sir James and Lady Galway invite you to participate in their annual International Flute Masterclass in the beautiful lakeside town of Weggis, Switzerland. This unique opportunity to participate in 7 Days with 'The Master of the Flute' includes daily warm-ups, vocal training and personal masterclasses focusing on all aspects of flute playing with emphasis on studies, recital and concerto repertoire.

Alongside Sir James' classes, Lady Jeanne Galway holds open classes each afternoon. The focus is on Auditors, who will have a chance to perform and be coached by Lady Galway with a pianist.

New to this year's class, we are delighted to announce that the following three 'Artists in residence' will be working alongside Sir James to assist him in classes on Technique, Etudes, Orchestral excerpts and Jazz improvisation during the week: Nicola Mazzanti, Raffaele Trevisani, Jim Walker.

Nicola Mazzanti will once again lead the Galway Festival Flute Choir each afternoon in preparation for the Grande Finale Concert on Friday. The flute choir is open to all students.

One afternoon will be devoted to a variety of workshops open to all by distinguished guest artists in their area of expertise. Evenings will be filled with concerts by renowned international flutists, including a recital by Sir James & Lady Galway.

There will also be several flute exhibitors as well as on-site repairs available and chances to win special prizes including exclusively made flute head joints by the most renowned flute makers.

Once again, The Masterclass will be held at the Stella Matutina in Hertenstein near Weggis, complete with accommodation and meals.
